

lifting restrictions on media cross ownership would increase the control of all media to a few conglomerates and result in a reduction or elimination of broad, independent coverage of the news for all Americans. Fox News is a good example of this narrow coverage. Do not eliminate America's independent free press.